Notes for Home

Don't forget – the deadline for 2017 Early Enrollment is August 19 (the last day of camp)! In order to lock in the best rates, be sure to send your enrollment application and deposit via bus mail, fax or regular mail by next Friday!!

Week Seven and Overnights!

Senior Boys and Girls (5th and 6th Graders) had an amazing overnight experience on Monday. They all started with cardboard boat races in the pool (won by counselor Nick's team), then the boys played Storm the Castle (a modified version of Capture the Flag), while the girls enjoyed a spa night!

3rd and 4th Grade campers loved spending Thursday night here at camp, with a live action Pokemon Go competition for the boys, while the girls tie-dyed, had a lip sync battle, and have a nighttime glow swim!

Teen campers will spend next Tuesday night at camp, participating in a sunset canoe ride, live action Pokemon Go, and cooking their own dinner over the LakeView campfire!

SENSATIONAL WEEK SEVEN!

We had another awesome week of camp! Monday started with campers in fun luau wear for Tropical Day, and then we had fun snuggling with our friends for our Teddy Bear Picnic on Tuesday! Wednesday was a fun day despite a little drizzle, and campers enjoyed our awesome annual Carnival Day on Thursday, complete with games, rides and "Eat Around the World" stations, where campers could sample foods from different countries! We all represented our favorite countries for International Day on Friday.

See you on Monday for one more week of LakeView fun!!

News from the LakeView Playhouse

LakeView's talented campers began presenting the shows for the second half of the summer this week:

Friday, August 12, 3rd and 4th grade campers wowed campers and parents with their performance of The Lion King this morning.

This was followed by The Wizard of Oz, presented by LakeView's teens in the afternoon!

On Monday, August 15, our Senior campers will treat campers to The Little Mermaid during the day, and parents will join them for a second performance in the evening!

Bravo!

Featured Division 3rd and 4th Grade Boys

Division Leader Dan's energetic, friendly and fun-loving 3rd grade boys are having a super summer in their Minecraft-themed bunk! They especially love Outdoor Adventure, Soccer and Bungee Trampoline with their counselors Jon, Vats, Max, Sammy, Maddy, Mike, Dylan, Jason and Barshay.

LakeView's 4th Grade Boys are enjoying being "big kids" at camp, and selecting an Option activity for the first time this summer! These lively, sporty (their bunk theme is Sports), funny boys love Gaga, Boating and Backyard Games (this week was Wiffle Ball!) with Division Leader Ryan and counselors Justin, Harsha, Karan, Phil, Alex, Kyle and Eiad.

What's Cooking in Cooking

The recipe of the week is for CAULIFLOWER TOTS!

- Boil one head of cauliflower for 10 minutes in a pot of salted water.
- Whisk 2 eggs in a bowl. When cool enough to handle, dip small pieces of cauliflower in egg, then in a bowl of seasoned bread crumbs.
- Bake on a cookie sheet for 20 minutes at 350; sprinkle with parmesan cheese and enjoy!

This week's featured International is HANNAH!

Hannah returns to LakeView for a second summer as a Boating Specialist, from Auckland, New Zealand. She says she "couldn't imagine NOT coming back to camp!" Hannah is enjoying being on the lake, and loves that everyone at LakeView is so nice!

After camp, Hannah will travel with a group of LakeView international staff to New Orleans and Florida, then she plans to meet her family in California for a few weeks of travel on the West Coast!

Campers had a FANTASTIC time at Carnival Day!!

A parents guide to Tribal Days!

Tribal Days are LakeView's version of color war, and takes place on Tuesday and Wednesday of Week 8. LakeView's tribes (which have been around for more than 50 years) are:

- Lakavus - BLUE
- Kavalues - RED
- Konkakootchies - GREEN
sometimes abbreviated to "Konks"
- Manitous - YELLOW - pronounced "Man-i-taws")

2016 Tribal Wall!

Kiddie Kastle campers are placed in tribes by group, and once campers are in Main Camp (1st grade and up), the tribe they're assigned is the tribe they stay in for the duration of their LakeView experience! Campers can choose to wear tribal colors to support their tribe.

Campers spend part of the day in their groups, and part with their tribes, participating in games and competitions, and having lots of fun! The winner of Tribal Days will be announced Wednesday afternoon.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY!!!!
